

I give up the world of emotions
Reject my relationship with you
Perfectly indifferent, free in the abyss of my self
I've stashed where my life will not reach me
Vanity of vanities, I know, but I go further
I have no way out of the misery of existence in the vanity of non-being Trapped in this body, I reach the bottom
For my best efforts
I'm Stuck in the gutter with song on the lips

Oh, I do not want anything anymore
Death is everywhere as far as the eye can see
In the thick of wickedness, human passions, pointless and without purpose
So what? I have no control!
Let's throw it away, let's raise a flag of indifference
Let everything flow by, it does not concern us
