

Hostile Blood

Deivos

Blood-blood all over infecting whirls of furious anger
Have I woken or fallen asleep
Deeper into the maze of winding passages Endless passages of hostile blood

Long deserted the abode of peace
No rest till daybreak comes Devoured am I by hate
Digested in its mouth

Disturbed serenity descends into murky pits of extatic joylessness
Disgust at what i have been watching Undoubtedly will intensify

Armies of insects mental locusts Taste our despise so persistent and Unquenchable

Fear did linger roaming through the soul
Creeping up on the flesh
Immunized i feel anatagonistic structures breeding
The blessed venom shield against itself seeping into mind
brace yourself
Face the callous blade of my sharpest weapon
