Dej Loaf

My friends couldn't keep up
I'm not doin' no shots but imma show you my guns
Imma take my chances I ain't hide my tongue
Imma screaming to the top of my lungs
If you ain't chasing your dreams what the fuck are you doin'
Tell me how is that fun
Tell me what's keep you goin'
I just wanna know
Fuck it, Imma move on Cold, the fuck is it snowin'
In Detroit
That's my city, don't think you cool with that gun
You a son of bitch
You ain't tougher than nothin'
I can never be a benchwarmer
Niggas want beef bitch, fuck it, I'm George Forman
Diamonds dancing, gettin' better performin'
I be working on my vocals all night, all morning
No snorin' I warned you
Back where they cracked me joke's and I ain't think shit was funny

Old friends that turned into strangers
Ex Lovers mad that I'm famous
They see the picture I painted
I been going through changes
I prayed to God and I made it
Nobody did me no favor
I'm sorry if you can't take it
I been going through changes

Ever since I was young, knew I was the one
Dazed in new wave, I'm just soaking it in Funny how they said they want it back then
Once I got it, shit started disappearin'
How you carry yourself, how you speak within Anything negative ain't part of my plan
God chose me and I be God damned
If I let another soul try to wheel me in
If it was meant to be, you'd be right here
New phone, who dis? Ain't heard from you in years
And they could never call me selfish
Gave chances after chances
Mama knows best, mama said they all jealous
And I ain't gon' lie
That shit is scary when that you love
Don't wanna see you flaunt
Don't wanna see you eat, they wanna take your porridge
I just want my bro free, "Freeman" like Morgan
I'm blessed and I struggle, you don't know my story
Yeah, and shit, soon, I'll be married
Hope to see you and your children at my wedding, baby

Old friends that turned into strangers
Ex Lovers mad that I'm famous
They see the picture I painted
I been going through changes
I prayed to God and I made it

Nobody did me no favor
I'm sorry if you can't take it
I been going through changes
