

Lucky Guy

Del Amitri

Baby, hold it, just let me try
For just one minute to be this other guy
And live his life
With my home and faithful wife
And your pretty face to kiss some nights

Ain't I a lucky guy
I get what I want, yeah
Ain't I a lucky guy
Unlucky for some

Baby, I like it, it feels all right
Now that I see it through his cheating eyes
I can't stop smiling
How could I not be satisfied
So glad I ain't the one on the losing side

Ain't I a lucky guy
I get what I want, yeah
Ain't I a lucky guy
Unlucky for some

No need to feel guilty baby
I'm happy to be
The one that you come to baby, 'stead of me
You'd better believe it, baby

So I don't know where tonight
Love will lead me but that's all right, 'cos

Ain't I a lucky guy
I get what I want, yeah
Ain't I a lucky guy
Unlucky for some

So lucky, baby
So lucky, baby
