

I Can't Believe My Ears

Del Shannon

I can't believe my ears,
You're telling me we're through,
With a smile on your lips,
And a gleam in your eyes,
You're breaking my heart in two,

From your look,
I didn't know,
That your words would hurt me so,
I'm gonna cry,
Cry, cry, cry,
Cry my life away,
'Cause I love to watch you talk, talk, talk,
But I hate what I hear you say,

I can't believe my ears,
You really put me down,
I thought I was so high,
On the stairway to love,
But I'm way down on the ground,

You're such a diplomat,
With your words you lay me flat,
I'm gonna cry,
Cry, cry, cry,
Cry my life away,
'Cause I love to watch you talk, talk, talk,
But I hate what I hear you
