

I'll Be Lonely Tomorrow

Del Shannon

Tonight you're in my arms,
Tell me that you love me,
Tomorrow I'll be gone,
Falling across the sea.

The joy I feel tonight,
Is turning in the sorrow,
So down and let me hold you close tonight,
I'll be lonely tomorrow.

While I'm in your arms,
Kiss me tender lit,
Whisper in my ear,
That you love me complete.

I wish that time,
Was something we could borrow,
Down and let me hold you close tonight,
I'll be lonely tomorrow.
Promise, that you'll wait for me,
And tell me,
Your love will always burn,
And take, the dreams we had together,
We'll still be here, darling,
When I'll returned.

I'll miss you so my love,
But I'll always got the past,
How I wish somehow,
We could make this moment last.

I know that time,
Is something we can't borrow,
So down and hold me close tonight,
I'll be lonely tomorrow.
Tomorrow...
