

Hurting Kind

Del Water Gap

Is our love the hurting kind ?
I fear to say it is, but I'm just guessing
You say you wished I'd move to Spain
Or that one of us would die of hypertension

Oh, how I missed you
Would you let me know
If you've been lonesome too and can I kiss you?
Quick before you go

We can hold still if you don't mind
If we ignore it we can be fine
If we learn our love is the hurting kind
No, it won't empower me
Till it kills us we can live a lie
If we ignore it we can be fine
If we learn our love is the hurting kind
I'll let it devour me

Sorry that your blouse is stained
You simply can't do laundry with your schedule
And I say, "I miss my best friend
But babies need to eat, they beg attention"

Oh, how I missed you
Would you let me know
If you've been lonesome too and can I kiss you?
Quick before you go

We can hold still if you don't mind
If we ignore it we can be fine
If we learn our love is the hurting kind
No, it won't empower me
Till it kills us we can live a lie
If we ignore it we can be fine
If we learn our love is the hurting kind
I'll let it devour me

Oh, I'll let it devour me

Would you let me know
Is our love the hurting kind?
I fear to say it is

We can hold still if you don't mind
If we ignore it we can be fine
If we learn our love is the hurting kind
No, it won't empower me
Till it kills us we can live a lie
If we ignore it we can be fine
If we learn our love is the hurting kind
I'll let it devour me
