

Chapel

Delacey

I swore I'd never be happy
Oh, shit look at me I'm acting classy
When I'm usually nasty

I'm never gonna take your name but
Take me to the wedding chapel and marry me right now
Kinda wanna jump your bones and lock you down
Take me to the wedding chapel and marry me right now

I still like the way you see me
You still don't believe I'm crazy
Maybe I should have your babies
So when you find out the truth and it's freaky
You can't leave me
You can't leave me

You're gonna hate me one day but
Take me to the wedding chapel and marry me right now
Kinda wanna jump your bones and lock you down
Take me to the wedding chapel and marry me right now
Take me to the wedding chapel

I've never been scared to die alone
But I could die with you sitting next to me
With a cup of tea
And a rosary

So, take me to the wedding chapel and marry me right now
Kinda wanna jump your bones and lock you down
Take me to the wedding chapel and marry me right now
Ooohh
Take me to the wedding chapel
Ooohhh, yeah
Take me to the wedding chapel
