

Drama Queen

Delacey

I been on my same old bullshit
Make everyone but me the culprit
Yeah, I know what I'm doing
Maybe it's my daddy's fault
For being so damn wonderful
Yeah, you know I'm ruined

Will you be mine
And stay just 'cause you can?
I wonder

Well, I love Jesus as much as the next
But it sure didn't make me a delicate flower
Just ask my momma
I know when I leave this earth
The world will probably still turn
But damn it, you'll miss the drama

Will you be really sad
And take off to Japan?
I wonder

I will always be a drama queen
But you love me
Don't you forget it
It's getting even easier to leave
But stay with me
You might regret it

I say I'm not a heavy drinker
My liver probably begs to differ
Yeah, runs in my family
Better alone with my bad temper
I'd love to get myself more centered
Yeah, but that sounds drastic

Sometimes it's really far
Sometimes it's really dumb, deal with it

I will always be a drama queen
But you love me
Don't you forget it?
It's getting even easier to leave
But stay with me
You might regret it

I probably said something morbid
Dark humor, yeah, I'm all for it
And I, I'm not above it
Maybe I'll finally lose my mind
And do anything for the limelight
Yeah, oh you don't love it

If it ever comes to that
I'll run off to Japan
I'm your drama queen
