Delacey

Britney
You're my favorite person in the world
It's hard for me to describe you in this moment because to me y ou're everything
I could say that you're a blade of grass but then I would wind up describing
The field, the soil, everything growing and living in it and ar ound it Until I'd expanded so far That earth itself is as small as a particle of dust, catching a light
Maybe I can describe you this way
When I'm near you, when I'm beside you When I kiss you and when you kiss me
I feel God
