

Let's Get Married

Delacey

Let's get married
And find a hundred guests and get a priest
Fight about the flowers and the seats
Maybe we don't even last a week

Let's get married
Get pregnant and maybe miscarry
Fill our shelves with little memories
Wake up when somebody has to pee

Let's get married
Pray we get to have a century
Do what makes more sense financially
Cancer runs in both our families

Let's get married
Measure time in anniversaries
Taking turns on who's allowed to grieve
Learn too much and lose the mystery

Let's get married
Fifty-fifty chance statistically
Pay for our lawyers to separate our things
And we don't speak

But I love you
Yes I love you
Yes I love you
Yes I love you
Let's get married
