

Things I'd Save In A Fire

Delacey

I've always been jealous how
You can still feel safe and sound
When falling asleep on the passenger's side
Flying across the country
You don't need the window seat
Falling asleep while we're crossing state lines

As for me, I'm just thinking 'bout
How many minutes 'til the plane goes down
Is there a heaven like they talk about?
Or is it just over when we're in the ground?
When I can't sleep but I'm tired
I'm listing the things I'd save in a fire

When I get some time alone
I go in a twilight zone
Tornadoes in LA, tsunamis in Kansas
I've always been jealous of your ability to trust
And when something bad happens, you understand it

As for me, I'm just thinking 'bout
How many minutes 'til the plane goes down
Is there a heaven like they talk about?
Or is it just over when we're in the ground?
When I can't sleep but I'm tired
I'm listing the things I'd save in a fire

Save my black dress, so I'm ready for a funeral
Save my black dress, so I'm ready for a funeral

'Cause as for me, I'm just thinking 'bout
How many minutes 'til the plane goes down
Is there a heaven like they talk about?
Or is it just over when we're in the ground?
When I can't sleep but I'm tired
I'm listing the things I'd save in a fire
