

Fire with Fire

Delain

You have let them arch your back and
Swallowed the toxicity
Hold your own, don't wait and see

You've let them make you feel bad about
Every little thing you've done
Judge of all things, maker of none

Just kill 'em with kindness

'Cause you will always be much too
Strong for someone else
You will always be much too
Tall for someone else
Don't you try to apologise
Black Star, that's what you are
No one stills the fire in your heart
Fire with fire now
Fire with fire now
Fire with fire now

You allowed it, you condoned it
You are holding all the cards
All you need is some simple words

"No" is a good one, "hell no" is better
Open doors by shutting one
It seems impossible until it's done

Just kill 'em with kindness

And you will always be much too
Strong for someone else
You will always be much too
Tall for someone else
Don't you try to apologise
Black Star, that's what you are
No one stills the fire in your heart
Fire with fire now

Fire with fire now
Fire with fire now

Just kill 'em with kindness

Strong for someone else
Strong for someone

Strong for someone else
And you will always be much too
Tall for someone else
Don't you try to apologise
Black Star, that's what you are
No one stills the fire in your heart
Fire with fire now
