

Generation Me

Delain

Here I am in all my majesty
There is nothing you won't get to see
Come along and I'll give you my world
In one-hundred-forty characters

Don't you try to analyse
We are just raised to reach the stars

Can't you see it's generation me
I don't need anyone or anything
I'll make it alone
Can't you see it's generation me
We don't need anyone or anything
Just leave me alone

I don't know if I spend my time in vain
In getting everyone to know my name
All I know is my face looks fucking right
From this certain angle certain light

Don't you try to criticize
It's no crime, but a product of our time
So here I am....
And here I am....
So here I am....

Can't you see it's generation me
I don't need anyone or anything
I'll make it alone
Can't you see it's generation me
We don't need anyone or anything
Just leave me alone
