

Vengeance

Delain

Won't you dig out my roots?
Can't you feel my frustration?
About the road we are on
And what we've become
Are you in this with me still?

You're breaking the gates as you're breaking my heart
Tear down the walls as I tear you apart
And my everything's shattered now

Give me a reason
Give me a sign or a sacrifice
One more reason to lay down these arms
And stop the fight
Give me a reason
Give me a sign, you get one more try
Or tonight
Vengeance is mine

If I were to see
The mere sight of you
Oh, believe it
Breathing the same air
I'd rather die millions of deaths

You're breaking the gates as you're breaking my heart
Tear down the walls as I tear you apart
And my everything's shattered now

Give me a reason
Give me a sign or a sacrifice
One more reason to lay down these arms
And stop the fight
Give me a reason
Give me a sign you get one more try
Or tonight
Vengeance is mine

If I were to see
The mere sight of you
Oh, believe it
Breathing the same air
I'd rather die millions of deaths

Give me a reason
Give me a sign
Give me one more try
Or tonight
Vengeance is mine
