

Eyes closed, I let go
Fuck you for the hell of it
So close to her ghost
Swear I smell her on your skin
Can't hide
'Cause your eyes tell me all the things you did
You don't know what I know
No, you don't know that I know

My mama said you weren't a keeper
Shoulda never let you meet her
But it got so much deeper
You're the drug and you're the dealer
Oh, I hate the way I need ya

I swear, eyes blurred
I confess it's dangerous
Loving you under the influence
I swear, eyes blurred
I live with the consequence
Of loving you under the influence

It's late but I wait for another piece of you
I pray for the day that you tell me the truth
Tell me how many others get to have you too?
You don't know what I know
No, you don't know that I know

My mama said you weren't a keeper
Shoulda never let you meet her
But it got so much deeper
You're the drug and you're the dealer
Oh, I hate the way I need ya

I swear, eyes blurred
I confess it's dangerous
Loving you under the influence
I swear, eyes blurred
I live with the consequence
Of loving you under the influence

You're my heart, no, can't stop
How long till I let go?
Don't know if I can let go
I chase the feeling just to have my heart drop
You don't know what I know
No, you don't know that I know

My mama said you weren't a keeper
Shoulda never let you meet her
But it got so much deeper
Oh, I hate the way I need ya

I swear, eyes blurred
I confess it's dangerous
Loving you under the influence
I swear, eyes blurred

I live with the consequence
Of loving you under the influence
