

Somewhere Else

Delaney Jane

I suffocate in the city
And I know the lights are pretty
But I wanna get out
I just wanna get out of here

And yeah, it's a pity
'Cause I know you love the city
But I need to get out
I just need to get out of here

Maybe I'm scared to settle down
Maybe I'm not home yet
Maybe I'm trying to figure out
Where I'm going
You already know just who you are
And, baby, you're perfect
But I gotta go
I gotta go
I gotta go

I need to be somewhere else
Where I can't get lost
And I've passed the crossroads
I need to be somewhere else
Somewhere I won't be needing more
I won't be looking for
Somewhere else

Call it my intuition
I feel like something's burning
And I wanna get out
I just wanna get out of here

It's never been my decision
But something's always missing
And I need to get out
I just need to get out of here

Maybe I'm scared to settle down
Maybe I'm not home yet
Where I'm going
You already know just who you are
And, baby, you're perfect
But I gotta go
I gotta go
I gotta go

I need to be somewhere else
Where I can't get lost
And I've passed the crossroads
I need to be somewhere else
Somewhere I won't be needing more
I won't be looking for
Somewhere else
(Somewhere else)

I suffocate in the city
But I need to find a way to somewhere else

I need to be somewhere else
Where I can't get lost
And I've passed the crossroads
I need to be somewhere else
Somewhere I won't be needing more
I won't be looking for
Somewhere else
Somewhere else
Somewhere else
I won't be looking for
Somewhere else
