

Everything Will Be Rosy

Delbert McClinton

Hearts get broken every day
You can't let that get in your way
Soon enough those tears will fade
Everything will be rosy.
Sometimes life gets so absurd.
The trick is learning how to handle the curve.
Get a grip don't lose your nerve.
Everything will be rosy.
There gonna be hard times, good times,
All along the way.
It really ain't none of my business,
But I'm gonna tell you 'bout it anyway.
You don't have to answer. You're nobody's fool
Listen up. I got news for you.
You gotta find a way to lose your blues,
And everything will be rosy.
