

Coming Back

Delirious?

Come free me oh Lord
Come save me oh God
For I have known the hand of the Lord
I have felt the eyes of the Lord on me, yeah

Come meet me oh Lord
Befriend me oh God
For I have seen the extent of Your fame
I have found the maker of heaven and earth

Oh, I found the Lord

Heaven knows I'm coming back this time
I'm guilty of this crime
Cos I've been walking out on You
I've run across the world
And walked in barren lands
You've knocked this fool right to the floor
I'm coming back again

To You

Well all my roads lead to the cross
Where You have shown the way to turn
I thought I heard rejoicing in heav'n over me, yeah

Oh, I thought I heard the angels

Oh, heaven knows I'm coming back this time
I'm guilty of this crime
Cos I've been walking out on You, yeah
I've run across the world
And walked in barren lands
You've knocked this fool right to the floor

Well I threw it all away
And I died to myself
But I'll never understand
How I rose again, oh
You have shown Your hands full of grace
Why You chose such a life of disgrace
I can never repay such a man
But I'm coming back again

If You'd have me, Lord

Heaven knows I'm coming back this time
I'm guilty of this crime
Cos I've been walking out on You, oh yeah
I've run across the world
And walked in barren lands
You've knocked this fool right to the floor
I'm coming back again

I'm coming back
I'm guilty of this crime

Oh

I'm coming back again
I'm guilty of this crime
Cos I've been walking out on You
So many times, oh
