

Contempt

Deliverance

You stole from my life and the endearing part of my youth
You led me thru and all around in your circus you called 'truth'

Take a knee and learn to submit, it's the only way!
You said it was to God, but somehow you were always in the way

Never again - Never again - never again
Will I submit to you!
Never again - Never again - never again
Will I bend to you!

With trembling hands, I remember terror when I look at these scars
The tears of hate would roll as I ponder how you'd go so far
Scatter the sheep, and the shepherd moves in for the kill
Shear the little ones many times, skin them only once of their will

Never again - Never again - never again
Will I submit to you!
Never again - Never again - never again
Will I bend to you!

You prayed for the well, while the sick couldn't make it to the stage
Performed ill-licensed counsel while playing the role of a sage
I learned to hate myself, to be ashamed of what I feel
Unable to determine from what is a farce and what is real

Never again - Never again - never again
Will I submit to you!
Never again - Never again - never again
Will I bend to you!
