

Reborn

Delta Heavy

Live and breathe hope, you can forget all doubt
Giving me peace, letting it all play out
Feeling the taste, bitter and fake in your mouth
And I thought that we could make it, but I'm not alone without you

Where have you gone, and where do we go?
Where do we go?
How could you say we'll make it?
To give it all, we'd have to be reborn
We'd have to be reborn
We'd have to be reborn

Where have you gone, and where do we go?
Where do we go?
How could you say we'll make it?
To give it all, we'd have to be reborn
We'd have to be reborn
We'd have to be reborn
