

Burning In Carolina

Delta Rae

The panic never stops
It's the rush of wanting it so much
That it tears you up
So you drove out of San Francisco
With your head and your heart and nothing else to show

Saying I couldn't wait for it
Even on my darkest day
And I stayed awake for it
Even on my darkest day

Was there a light that I saw burning in Carolina?
Was there a light that I saw burning in Carolina?
Oh burning in Carolina
Oh burning in Carolina

You wanted to go home
To the friends you know
And the haunts
That you call your own

But you choose
Cause you can't take it all
You get a torch and a flame
And burn the path you want

Saying I broke my heart for it
Even on my darkest day
Would've starved for it
Even on my darkest day

Was there a light?

Was there a light that I saw burning in Carolina?
Was there a light that I saw burning in Carolina?
Was there a light that I saw burning in Carolina?
Was there a light that I saw burning in Carolina?
Oh burning in Carolina
Oh burning in Carolina
Oh burning in Carolina
Oh burning in Carolina
