

No One Will Miss Me

Delta Rae

I call your name into the wind
I lost my love and my only friend
I cry myself to sleep at night
But I wake up laughing and I don't know why

I crash my boat into the shore
(Breaking up, you're breaking up)
I held my head, I held my course
(Waking up, you're waking up)

And I'm leaving, leaving
Baby, I'm leaving tonight
I've got to find my reasons
I've got to come back to life

'Cause it doesn't even matter if I run away
I know it doesn't even matter if I sail away
I said it doesn't even matter if I love or hate
'Cause no one will miss me

I know it doesn't even matter if I run away
No it doesn't even matter if I sail away
No it doesn't even matter if I love or hate
'Cause no one will miss me when I'm gone
