

One Good Cry

Delta Rae

Gonna light a few candles and put some old records on Finally open that rainy day bottle of wine
Gonna lose myself dancing 'round to our favorite song
That's my way of saying goodbye

I'm giving you one good cry
That's all you'll get from me
Soon as these tears all dry
Baby my hands are clean
I could go on and on
But you ain't worth my time
I'm giving you one
You only get one good cry

Gonna revel in every regret, every memory
Gonna let you take hold of me one last time
By tomorrow morning, I'll be pouring coffee and you'll just be history
I'll be strong, I'll move on
But tonight

I'm giving you one good cry
That's all you'll get from me
Soon as these tears all dry
Baby my hands are clean
I could go on and on
But you ain't worth my time
I'm giving you one
You only get one good cry

'Cause you'll be long gone
Where you belong
Yeah but right now
All I need
All I need

Is one good cry
That's all you'll get from me
Soon as these tears all dry
Baby my hands are clean
I could go on and on
But you ain't worth my time
I'm giving you one
You only get one good cry
I'm giving you one
You only get one good cry
