

Still Waters

Delta Rae

Still waters run deep and far love
I dreamt of rivers that carry our spirits
Through nights of starlight
Through days in the desert
Through pain and glory
They're carving our story
Through stampedes on the prairie
To a hush on the ocean
We keep on going
'Cause no one ever really dies

Hey ya
Oh
Hey ya
Oh

Crisp and frozen
Paint peels off the bones of
That kudzu captive
The voices of Baptists
Rung higher than the ceiling
Swung low sweet believing
If one man is risen
Then no one ever really dies

Hey ya
Oh
Hey ya
Oh

Dancing atoms
Break free from the stratum
Of our weak predictions
Big bang contradictions
It's pieced together
Changes with the weather
But we dig forever
'Cause no one ever really dies

Hey ya
Oh
Hey ya
Oh
(Still waters)
Hey ya
No one ever really dies
(Still waters)
Hey ya
No one ever really dies
(Still waters)
Hey ya
'Cause no one ever really dies
Hey ya
'Cause no one ever really dies
