

Stayed late
Trying to find the answers
Caught up on myself
I know it well
I've gone about this over, and over
No reset for my mind
That's okay
It'll go away

If you don't tell me
The weather won't change
Could you hear me?

Long haul
Crossed another border
Just the other day
They're all the same
We've been around this over, and over
No reset for my mind
Driving down the interstate
We'll drive away

If you don't tell me
The weather won't change
Could you hear me?
If you don't get my interstate
Too late
The weather won't change
Could you hear me?

(Look at the outside, I knew ya)

Look at the outside
I knew ya
Maybe another time
I wonder

If you don't tell me
The weather won't change
Could you hear me?
