

Hold My End Up

Delta Spirit

The sun fell, another night began.
Shots rang out, all the people ran.
Confident in our innocence.
Promises out in the wilderness.
I know, I said, I would,
I know, I said, I would.

The martyred sons of a forgotten fit.
Bend a knee for your favorite.
So foolish in their innocence.
Promises out in the wilderness.
I know, I said, I would,
I know, I said, I would.

Hold my end, hold my end up, hold my end.
Hold my end, hold my end up, hold my end.

It's not too late to turn your back on them.
What kind of friend would lead you to your death?
Don't be foolish in your innocence.
Break the promise in the wilderness.
I know, you said, you would,
I know, you said, you would,
I know

Hold my end, hold my end up, hold my end.
Hold my end, hold my end up, hold my end.

I know, you said, you would,
I know, you said, you would...
