

Home Again

Delta Spirit

How good it feels to be home again
Struck by the lightning, a little money in my hand
I wanna love you the best that I can
How good it feels to be home again

Alone, I've been on a bender for a year
Piss fit and perfectly happy to be here
Pass me the bottle, I've got nothing to defend
How good it feels to be home again

That line from Prine about the end of days
How the hell can a person have nothing left to say
Come and try and lift my suitcase full of sand
How good it feels to be home again

How good it feels to be home again
Struck by the lightning, a little money in my hand
I tried to love you the best that I can
How good it feels to be home again

How good it feels to be home again
Struck by the lightning, a little money in my hand
I wanna love you the best that I can
How good it feels to be home again
