

Some Dreams

Delta Spirit

I found myself in a cage
Holding onto my anger
Somewhere there is a stage
They will bury me under
It's probably off [?]
Under the shadow of a flying [?]
It's got a desert view
And the bartender is kind to you

Some dreams never die
They will break your heart and make you cry

Put a bullet in my past again
Walked out the door, well I'm back, my friends
With my pain out on the road
I had a point to make but now I'm all alone
And I'm running outta time
From the driver's seat in my [?]
I hear the WALKMAN and think of you
And how my heart's in the strangest place, too

Some dreams never die
They will break your heart and make you cry

It was ringing in my ear
One hundred thousand hours of thunder
Covered in sweat from head to toe
We'll kick against the bricks for one more show

Some dreams never die
They will break your heart and make you cry
Some dreams never die
They will drive you on, put color in your life
Put color in your life
Put color in your life
Put color in your life
Put color in your life
