

White Table

Delta Spirit

Meet me darlin', won't you?
I've been waiting for you
At my lonesome white table
Ready, willing and able

Torn in two, beaten and scarred
I'll give you my love but not my heart
Tattered and worn, battered and bruised
I'll give you my love but it won't be true

Someday, darlin', maybe
You could be my baby
Until then I'll be waitin'
At my lonesome white table

Torn in two, beaten and scarred
I'll give you my love but not my heart
Tattered and worn, battered and bruised
I'll give you my love but it won't be true
