

Departure

DELUHI

I want no destination
I can't tell you where, I'm going even if you ask me.

I want new vibrations
No more wastin' time, I can't wait for the day to come
I don't stray anymore!

I want no stagnation
If I ask you in five years time
'Do you still have the same dream?'
Let me hear from you (Oooh)

Going as far as I can reach with my hands
I will never find what I long for
I don't wanna chase what's in front of me (Oooh)
I only have to go faraway in search of some unseen destination

It's time of departure for the future
sono ippo ga (Yeah) kitto keshiki wo kaete ikunda
Don't look back. Set off without thinking
Riyuu yori mo (Yeah) motto taisetsu na koto ga arunda
It's time of departure for the future

I want no destination
I can't tell you where, I'm going even if you ask me. (Oooh)

There is no use thinking before you start
Just go ahead and do it
Once you are out on the road you will soon find (Oooh)
The answer you are looking for simply is in your view, in your mind
Feel your imagination

It's time of departure for the future
fumi dasu koto ga (Yeah) asu wo kiri aite ikunda
Don't look back. Set off without thinking
sono namida ha (Yeah) itsu ga tsuyoi omoi ni kawaru
It's time of departure for the future
