

I'll See You In London

Deluxe

I wake up today
And again I have slept bad tonight
Why life is so cruel
Why the streets now seem so sad

But if you were here now baby
If you could feel my devotion
You could see how much I hate to say goodbye

It's easy when you come
To feel nice, to feel stronger to fight
Is easy to relax myself And even be fun

But I avoid the time now
And I'm waiting for tomorrow
We both know very soon I'll be by your side

I'll see you in London
I'll see you in London
I'll see you in London
I'll see you in London town

We'll go to the clubs
Where I thought of you eighty two times
One time for each song, for each word
That I have said that night

Why can't you be here now baby?
Why I have to feel so lonely?
Why the things with you are so different that now?

I'll see you in London
I'll see you in London
I'll see you in London
I'll see you in London town
