To dance tonight
Call of your dogs I'm indisposed Silly songs couldn't redeem no heart of mine

I'm indisposed at the moment so bitch limit ya imagery Defy physics so you can find gimmicks to mimic me Try spinnin it cynically with the bitterest enemy Mixed in with sinisters livin within the vicinity Never end or pretend to b eludin in the groove I'm usin the tools despite ridin the music to move
I do what it do but never did what it doesn't Confusin the tunes hit with some wicked eruptions Hit the percussion...and vanish with the plans Grandstandin in this battle like a vandelist with cans Rations demands, man dancin is a suckas game I'm Piecin the puzzle together so fuck Guess ill just leave it or love it the fuckin same I numb my brain but I still feel the bass line Once insane I stumble into bills filled with hate crimes Make my exit to the left yet could not advance
So call all ya dogs of, I guess I never a got a chance.

Early cool rain silver drool stains brace, overstep, my gloom a bit WEST further calling it a night would of have kept it real tight but we foolishly favored tickling TURKISH DELIGHTS so be the one who got away with all my sweet CONFISERIE defying all my words yet he snores solemnly persuaded to preserve the buttertinkles in me pigheaded call See carrie-astic nightmares have wrung dire dead dreams have gently began TV slipped into my sleep as a snake envenoming my sheets by cold sweaty lakes where he pretends and tends to plot against his own good see I cant take it longer man we disagree I'm sorry I'm to ill
I'm sorry I'm to ill
