

Monday

Deluxe

I'd rather be, rather be, rather be
Naked, naked, naked, naked

Rather be naked rolling in the sun with someone
Infatuated with all my off-key dopey syndromes
Than fully clothed in, this kitchen court, domestic tantrums
We once held sacred, before time desecrated

Sundays were days we danced beneath the rain
Consider we both have change of hearts and rearrange

Can I keep the Mondays for my own?
Leave it up to Tuesdays, your day
Go together Wednesdays, long run
We go together, we go together

Can I keep the Mondays?
Leave it up to Tuesdays
We go together Wednesdays
You know I love you, babe
You know I love you, babe

This song is my ticket, to flip the old habits, stepson
No harm intended, all I do, I do for fun
Fight just to get it, fight just to get it done
I'd rather be naked, I'd rather be naked on

Sundays were days we danced beneath the rain
Consider we both have change of hearts and rearrange

Can I keep the Mondays for my own?
Leave it up to Tuesdays, your day
Go together Wednesdays, long run
We go together, we go together

Can I keep the Mondays for my own?
Leave it up to Tuesdays, your day
Go together Wednesdays, long run
We go together, we go together

Can I keep the Mondays?
Leave it up to Tuesdays
We go together Wednesdays
You know I love you, babe
You know I love you, babe

Can I keep the Mondays?
Leave it up to Tuesdays
We go together Wednesdays
You know I love you, babe
You know I love you, babe
