

We're getting old
Hearing the same song
You're talking shit
Admit
It when you're being a cunt

Sipping mold
Avoiding deadlines
Could this be
How we fell
Out of touch?

When you look away
Out to find a reason to stay
Maybe burry your heart
Before this wild world tears it apart

When you look away
Out to find a reason to stay
Maybe burry your heart
Before this wild world tears it apart

But help yourself run away girl
'Cause no one here gonna save ya
You sick of wasting away girl?
So move on and live your life

But help yourself run away girl
'Cause no one here gonna save ya
You sick of wasting away girl?
So move on and live your life

You come up with a hook
But I didn't cast no line
Least that's the way it looks
In my delusive mind

You're everything I'm not
And our bones collide
Peaceful lake of hurt
Where the swans they glide

I'm dying to be heard
But nothing comes out right
I'll be digging up the dirt
To get back at your pride

I'm trynna turn your heart
But your butt's too tight
See you in the dark
Nyctalope cat's eye

But if you look away
Out to find a reason to stay
Maybe burry your heart
Before this wild world tears it apart

But if you look away
Maybe burry your heart

But help yourself run away girl
You sick of wasting away girl?

But help yourself run away girl
You sick of wasting away girl?
