Shorty down for me, get go
Told her hold me tight, never let go
Pass it right back like a echo
I say baby bring it back like retro
All she wanna do is wine pon a man
I told her baby shake it fast as you can
Let me spoil you baby girl, what's the plan?
Take you to Jamaica, get wild on the sand

My body pressed against your body
I don't see nobody else but you
Caught in this moment
I'm feeling so golden
I love it when you come through
Gyal come wine pon me and I will grind pon you
Show me girl what you gon' do
Baby what you gon' do

Any man you want you can get
Any man you need you can get
Any man you want you can get
Any man you need you can get

Pat it up, the man a pet it
