

Shadow Crypt

Demented Are Go!

Here I am all alone in this crypt I lay I can't seem to find a light I cannot find my way

My mind wanders in the shadows I cannot hear a sound, a zombie screams and a werewolf howls my world is going down

Who's that looking in the shadows Who's that screaming in the night Who's that hiding in the darkness on this moonlit night

He walks into a graveyard
He cannot hear a sound He's in a trance his mind possessed His soul is going down

He fades into the distance finds his tomb of rest he's got his peace his sanity though his friends knew best

Reached the mist to save him afraid I was too late a banshee wails a full moon rising he's at that devil gate

I've heard so many stories about the evil dead now they come and haunt me now as I lay here in my bed

Listen to these words I say then it's up to you don't go in that cemetery or the same will come to you.
