

Gate of Eternity

Dementor

Music & Lyrics : Rene

Crowd of weeping people
Your life's gone
Your last journey
Ends in kingdom of death

You hear the cries and perceive a prayer
Crucifix in your hands gives you the hope
To redeem yourself from the world of sins
To eternal journey to your god

You open the gate of eternity
Your body putrifies in depths
You open the gate of eternity
Prepared to devote your fate to god forever

You see him lying under the rotten cross
Jesus is god and god is dust
Things they taught you and the things you liked
Were always cold, spreading fear

You suffer without him being near
You are dying without him saying something
Your soul is perished
It's never been alive
