    B            F#
1.  The day I first met you
    Asm              C#
     you told me you'll
    never fall in love
    B                F#/B
     But now that... I get you
    Asm              C#
     I know fear is what it really was
    B                Ebm
     Now here we are so
         Asm
    close yet so far
    C#
       Having not passed the test
    B          Ebm          Asm
      When will you realize
    C#(hold)
    baby I'm not like
    all the rest

    B                            F#
R:  Don't wanna break your heart
                          Ebm
    wanna give your heart a break
                          C#
    I know you're scared as wrong
                          B
    that you might make a mistake
                          F#
    There's just one life to live
    and there's no time
        Ebm
    to wait to waste
        C#
    So let me give your
    heart a break
                 F#
    Your heart a break
    Let me give your
            Ebm
    heart a break
                 C#
    Your heart a break
    oh yeah yeah

    B            F#/B           Asm
2.  On Sunday you went home alone
    C#
     there were tears in your eyes
    B                Ebm
      I called your cell phone
    Asm          C#

            my love but you did not reply
      B
         The world is ours
      F#
         if we want it
      Ebm                  C#
         We can take it if you
      just take my hand
      B                  Ebm
         There's no tur---ning back now
      C#(hold)
      baby try to understand

   R: Don't wanna break your heart...
                               B
      + This is so much you can take
                        F#
      give your heart a break
      Let me give your
            Ebm
      heart a break
                    C#
      Your heart a break
      oh yeah yeah

      Ebm          B              C#
   *:   When your lips are on my lips
            Bm              B
      then our hearts beat as one
             Asm
      But you slip out of
            C#
      my finger tips
      Bm               B  F# Ebm
      Every time you run!
      C# (hold)
         whoa whoa whoa

   R: Don't wanna break your heart...
         C#                        B
      So let me give your heart a break
                              F#
      Cause you've been hurt before
                     Ebm
      I see it in your eyes
                        C#
      You try to smile it away
      some things you can't disguise
      B                          F#
         Don't wanna break your heart
                         Ebm
      Baby you can ease the ache the ache
         C#                    B
      So let me give your heart a break
                  F#
      Your heart a break
                              Ebm
      Let me give your heart a break
                  C#
      Your heart a break
                        B
      This is so much you can take
                     F#
```

```
    give your heart a break
                              Ebm
Let me give your heart a break
              C#
Your heart a break, oh yeah yeah

B          F#/B
The day I... first met you
G#m           C# (hold)
you told me you'll
never fall in love
