Pattern

Demi Lovato

Yeah, you know how to get the best of me
Headstrong, but you beat the rest of me
Either love me, let me know, or set me free
Baby, you could let me go or never leave

Like clockwork, always right on time
Falling in love with the warning signs
My favorite kind of déjà vu when I wake up next to you

I see a pattern with you and me, you and me
I see a pattern that we repeat, we repeat
It doesn't matter, 'cause you're such a bad boy, oh
First we break it off, then we run it right back
Love to break it off, baby, run it right back
I see a pattern with you and me, you and me
I see a pattern that we repeat, we repeat
It doesn't matter, 'cause you're such a bad boy, oh
First we break it off, then we run it right back
Love to break it off, baby, run it right back

When it's late and you're playing me hot and cold, hot and cold
We forget the advice that we've been told, we've been told
Like a rerun I know I've seen this episode, oh
But we still never seem to crack the code, crack the code

Like clockwork, always right on time
Falling in love with the warning signs
My favorite kind of déjà vu when I wake up next to you

I see a pattern with you and me, you and me
I see a pattern that we repeat, we repeat
It doesn't matter, 'cause you're such a bad boy, oh
First we break it off, then we run it right back
Love to break it off, baby, run it right back
I see a pattern with you and me, you and me
I see a pattern that we repeat, we repeat
It doesn't matter, 'cause you're such a bad boy, oh
First we break it off, then we run it right back
Love to break it off, baby, run it right back

I see a pattern with you and me, you and me
I see a pattern that we repeat, we repeat
It doesn't matter, 'cause you're such a bad boy, oh
First we break it off, then we run it right back
Love to break it off, baby, run it right back
I see a pattern with you and me, you and me
I see a pattern that we repeat, we repeat
It doesn't matter, 'cause you're such a bad boy, oh
First we break it off, then we run it right back
Love to break it off, baby, run it right back
