

SKIN OF MY TEETH

Demi Lovato

Demi leaves rehab again
When is this shit gonna end
Sounds like the voice in my head
I can't believe I'm not dead

I'm alive by the skin of my teeth
I survived but it got harder to breathe
Asking why doesn't make it easier
Go easier on me
God damn it I just wanna be free
But I can't 'cause it's a fucking disease
I'm alive by the skin of my

The reaper knocks on my door
Cause I'm addicted to more
I don't need you to keep score
When I'm the one who's at war

I'm alive by the skin of my teeth
I survived but it got harder to breathe
Asking why doesn't make it easier
Go easier on me
God damn it I just wanna be free
But I can't 'cause it's a fucking disease
I'm alive by the skin of my

I'm just trying to keep my head above water
I'm your son and I'm your daughter
I'm your mother, I'm your father
I'm just a product of the problem

I'm just trying to keep my head above water
I'm your son and I'm your daughter
I'm your mother, I'm your father
I'm alive

I'm alive by the skin of my teeth
Won't you try and have some mercy on me
Asking why doesn't make it easier
Go easier on me
God damn it, I just wanna be free
But I can't 'cause it's a fucking disease
I'm alive by the skin of my

(I, I'm alive by)
(By the skin of my teeth)
