

Unforgettable (Tommy's Song)

Demi Lovato

Black and white
But nothin' in this world can shine as bright as those green eyes
It's hard to recognize you now
In a past life, id wear make-up incase you were passin' by
It's hard to recognize me now

Bad black coffee tastes so good when you're around
I climb the steps passed cigarettes, where are you now?
You got so high, you're not coming down
Is it better now?
I hope you're better now

You begged me not to forget you
But how could I?
You're unforgettable (You, ooh-oooh, oh)
You're unforgettable (You, ooh-oooh, oh)
You're unforgettable (You, ooh-oooh, oh)
You're unforgettable

Last time, you walked out my door
I swore this would be the last time
But now that you're not around
I cry, my make-up's all messed up, I didn't lie
What would I give to talk right now?

Bad black coffee tastes so good when you're around
I climb the steps passed cigarettes, where are you now?
Oh, you got so high, you're not coming down
Is it better now?
I hope you're better now

You begged me not to forget you
But how can I?
You're unforgettable (You, ooh-oooh, oh)
You're unforgettable (You, ooh-oooh, oh)
No, oh
You're unforgettable (You, ooh-oooh, oh)
You're unforgettable

I wish we had the time to say (Oh)
I wish we had more time to waste (Oh)
I wish I didn't have to break for you to hear me
I wish we had the time to say (More time)
I wish we had more time to waste (Oh yeah)
I wish I didn't have to break for you to hear me

Hey
Ooh, no no
Ahh, uh
Ooh-oooh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh-oh-oh, mmm
