

Futureless Forever

Demis Roussos

I'm a lonely man, I hope you realize
What means to me, some friend, and see there's no one
I wonder if you could, imagine how it feels
To keep on running into walls, and have no place to go

And I see your vision dancing, in the shadows of my dreams
But I'm living in a futureless forever
And I spend my hours thinking, of the days I was with you
And I'm living in a futureless forever

I'm a lonely man, I hope you realize
I'm drifting in a sea of isolation
I wonder if you could, imagine how it feels
To keep on running into walls, and have no place to go

And I see your vision dancing, in the shadows of my dreams
But I'm living in a futureless forever
And I draw in consolation, from my superficial dreams
But I'm living in a futureless forever

And I see your vision dancing, in the shadows of my dreams
But I'm living in a futureless forever
And I draw in consolation, from my superficial dreams
But I'm living in a futureless forever
