

Winter Rains

Demis Roussos

In the early morning rise,
you bring tears into my eyes,
but I know that we'll be true
forever, oh, together.

Summer shines and winter rains,
falling leaves from willow trees,
there's one thing I only know,
I love you, oh, I love you more,
I need you, oh, I want you more,
I love you.

Summer shines and winter rains,
falling leaves from willow trees,
there's one thing I only know,
I love you.

Drink with me my summerwine, you and I will live to die but as long as we are one forever, oh,
I love you, oh, I love you more,
I need you, oh, I want you more,
I love you.

Summer shines and winter rains,
falling leaves from willow trees,
there's one thing I only know,
I love you.

In the early morning rise,
you bring tears into my eyes,
but I know that we'll be true
forever, oh, together.

Let me love you more,
let me love you so.
