

Man You're Wrong

Demob Happy

Sleep well you're no use now
Sleep tight lose your grip now
Sleep sound and give your head to me
It's appealing isn't it
So cool so dark and quiet
Dive in the river bed won't bite, oh yeah

Come down that horse looks high
Knocked up on dreams and red wine
Maybe you're something that I missed
Woo hoo, yeah it's the best
My brain has no way to rest
But I know, I know how to love

And In the name of your lord die
And In the name of your lord

And In the name of your lord die
And In the name of your lord

Man, you're not the number one
You're not the fabled son
There's others been and gone

Man, you're not the number one
You're not the fabled son
There's others been and gone

Oh no, too sick for you
Don't think your plan had fruit
But I'll be quite happy on the fifth
Oh no, big man laugh at me
I am the son of jealousy
You take, but you're never gonna take it all

Oh yeah, oh yeah!

And in the name of your lord die
And In the name of your lord

And in the name of your lord die
And In the name of your lord

Man, you're not the number one
You're not the fabled son
There's others been and gone

Man, you're not the number one
You're not the fabled son
There's others been and gone

Man, you're not the number one
You're not the fabled son
There's others been and gone

Man, you're not the number one
You're not the fabled son

There's others been and gone
