

Strange Things

Demob Happy

Strange things are happening in my house
I'm lying in my bed
They come on, they come on, they come on
And strange things are happening when I sleep
To all of those who watch
You move on, you move on, you move on
And strange things are seared from my tongue
I'm lying in my bed
They come on, they come on, they come on
And strange things won't satisfy your son
To all of those who watch
You move on, you move on, you move on

My girlfriend
Yeah
She loves me
Yeah
And I love her
So I'm not your man

Another man will be wishing he was dead
Yeah
Fuck all the spells you got running through my head
Yeah
Another man will be wishing he was dead
Yeah
Fuck all the spells you got running through my head
Yeah
And I'm not your man so leave me

And strange things are happening in my house
I'm lying in my bed
They come on, they come on, they come on
And strange things are happening when I sleep
To all of those who watch
You move on, you move on, you move on
And good luck keeps running through my head
I share it with my friends
And live on, and live on, and live on
And good luck keeps running through my head
I share it with my friends
And live on, and live on, and live on

My girlfriend
Yeah
She loves me
Yeah
And I love her
So I'm not your man

Another man will be wishing he was dead
Yeah
Fuck all the spells you got running through my head
Yeah
Another man will be wishing he was dead
Yeah
Fuck all the spells you got running through my head

Another man will be wishing he was dead
Yeah
Fuck all the spells you got running through my head
Yeah
Another man will be wishing he was dead
Yeah
