

Underneath Your Tree

Demob Happy

Underneath my tree
Is where I want to be
Dark enough to breathe
But light enough to see
Mother nature's son
I guess that I'm the runt
Underneath her tree
Is where I want to be

Where you gonna be, baby?
Where you gonna sleep?
Where you gonna cook, baby?
How you gonna eat?

I hope you fall asleep in the end
It's easier than trying to pretend

Cognitive dissonance at work in you
Nearly had me convinced
Of a made up truth

I passively failed to see
We were doomed and we were meant to be

Underneath my tree
Is where I want to be
Deep inside your soul
Is where I'll find my home
Somewhere in your body
Is where I think I ought to be Underneath her tree is where I want to be

Where you gonna be, baby?
Where you gonna sleep?
Where you gonna cook, baby?
How you gonna eat?

What's the difference now
I hope I wasted nothing on you

Hey, hey
Come back please don't go
Hey, hey
Come back please don't go
Hey, hey
Taking off in UFO
Hey, hey
Come back please don't go
Come back please don't go
Come back please don't go
