

I'm Done

Demon Hunter

Lost in your convolution
Depleting love
Can't keep your own solution from losing blood

Head of the snake
Leading the lost
Heeding the call

Rename your self-deception, your blessed curse
Hold back your desperation
Don't make it worse

Ever the same
Furthest away
Loudest of all

Bury defeat
Carry the cross
Suffer the fall

Tell me I'm not numb
Hang me by my tongue
Truth is no illusion but for some
Show me where to run
I think I'm done

No sense in conversation
We fire at will
Why wait for evolution?
We've had our fill

Into the void
Dead in the eyes
Nobody home

Never relent
Sharpen the blade
Cut to the bone

Tell me I'm not numb
Hang me by my tongue
Truth is no illusion but for some
Show me where to run
I think I'm done
I think I'm done

Tell me I'm not numb
Hang me by my tongue
Truth is no illusion but for some
Show me where to run
I think I'm done
I think I'm done
I think I'm done
