

Lesser Gods

Demon Hunter

When days fall dark
Everything will fall apart
No path to guide
Solace for a shattered heart

Inside
Something in your soul will beg you why
What gain it is to live and die

Here we stand
To turn and face the odds
Sacrifice yourself
Or bow to lesser gods

If this is all
Where though will we meet again
I won't relent
Suffer to a bitter end

Inside
Something in your soul will beg you why
What gain it is to live and die

Here we stand
To turn and face the odds
Sacrifice yourself
Or bow to lesser gods

Sacrifice yourself
Or bow to lesser gods

There is no time for hesitation
To vow unto a caving world
Throw yourself upon the fire
Hear the call ascending from inside

Inside
Something in your soul will beg you why
What gain it is to live and die

Here we stand
To turn and face the odds
Sacrifice yourself
Or bow to lesser gods

Here we stand
To turn and face the odds
Sacrifice yourself
Or bow to lesser gods
