

MASTER

Demon Hunter

Why don't you bleed like the rest of us?
Drink from the well of the dead
Follow the right or the left of us
Don't you get into your head

You need a lesson in loyalty
No need to suffer alone
You violate your humanity
When you recoil away from the tone

Where is your shallow fidelity?
Give us your vow to a throne
You formulate your apology
We lie in wait to devour the bones

If all you want is just a master
We could be everything you need
If flesh and blood is what you're after
Then let the foolish take the lead

I paint a sacred blood around the door
But all the vultures wanna feed on it
They tell me God is not enough for war
Take a lesser man and bleed for him

You be the blind and devoted one
We'll be the vultures in wait
Carry the sway of a loaded gun
Isn't it better with someone to hate?

You will believe in the misery
You will be fed to the dogs
You will become what you ought to be
Only way through is to follow the fog

If all you want is just a master
We could be everything you need
If flesh and blood is what you're after
Then let the foolish take the lead

I paint a sacred blood around the door
But all the vultures wanna feed on it
They tell me God is not enough for war
Take a lesser man and bleed for him

I paint a sacred blood around the door
But all the vultures wanna feed on it
They tell me God is not enough for war
Take a lesser man and bleed for him

Bleed for him
Bleed for him
Bleed for him
Bleed for him
